KENSINGTON HILLTOP ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

BOOKOPOLY

HELP MEET OUR GOAL: $30,000

KENSINGTON HILLTOP 2025
READ-A-THON

HOW TO PLAY

1. Color in one house for every 15 minutes you read. Reach your grade goal (see "Go, Read, Win!") and then keep reading!

   Bonus: Complete three of the five activities at each railroad and color in the railroad. For each railroad completed, you'll receive an entry into a prize drawing! i.e. 2 railroads completed = 2 entries

   • Submit your game board and cash/check donations to the office by Monday, 3/24.

2. Visit a student's unique pledge page or go to https://app.99pledges.com/fund/KEF2025 and search by name to enter online donations. Use your paper donation sheet to keep track of check/cash donations, and turn them in to the office by March 24th. (NOTE: if you didn't receive your student's URL, see the FAQ sheet attached.)

3. Earn prizes as you read and fundraise (see Go, Read, Win!).

   Adults: Increase donations via corporate match programs!

THANK YOU!

DIDN'T RECEIVE YOUR 99PLEDGES URL?

Not to worry! To request your child(ren)'s unique URL for convenient online giving and sharing with family and friends, please complete this Google form at http://tinyurl.com/2025ReadathonSignUp with your child's first and last name, room number, and grade.

We'll set your child up with their own pledge page and send you the URL to get you started! For privacy, their page will show only their first name, last initial, grade and room number, along with a description of the fundraiser and a message they can use to share with family and friends. Having a pledge page online helps us more easily track how much they've raised so they can earn prizes! Donors can also leave messages of encouragement on their favorite young readers' pages.

⭐ To be fully included in future communications and events such as this, be sure to provide your contact information to the KEF school directory at the beginning of each school year.

WHAT "COUNTS" AS READING?

Kensington Elementary has students at all stages of reading. We understand some students are early readers or not quite reading on their own yet. The Read-a-thon is about raising important funds for KEF programs, encouraging reading and literacy, and also FUN! We want students to thrive and develop a love of reading for life. For Bookopoly, students may count minutes spent reading with an older child or adult.

WHAT IS KEF?

The Kensington Education Foundation raises funds from the parent community to provide enrichment programs that create hands-on learning experiences to complement the standards-based classroom learning funded by our school district. Classes take place during the school day and include:

- Art
- Library
- Math Support & Enrichment
- Music & Rhythm
- Physical Education
- Playworks (Recess Support)
- Reading Support/Reading Lab
- Science Support
- STE(A)M (Science, Technology, Engineering, & Math)
